Community Design Engagement Opportunity (Edgecombe)

WAYFINDING ART IS COMING TO EDGECOMBE
James D. Gross Recreation Center 4600 Lanier Ave, Baltimore, MD 21215

The Baltimore Office of Promotion & The Arts (BOPA), in collaboration with the Baltimore City Department of Planning, has commissioned Baltimore artist LaToya D. Peoples for the Edgecombe Wayfinding Project. Peoples will create new and unique wayfinding path markers along Pull Mall Road, with the goal of community building, traffic calming, beautification, public safety, and neighborhood pride. Pull Mall Rd. is an important connector between Martin Luther King Jr. Elementary School and Edgecombe Circle Elementary School in the Park Highlands community of Baltimore City. The Baltimore City public schools (BCPS) closed Martin Luther King Jr. Elementary School in 2002. Students in elementary grades have been housed in Edgecombe Circle Elementary School, while students in the middle grades can now attend Pimlico Elementary/Middle School. The project aims to highlight the safe walking routes along the Pull Mall Road corridor between the two school buildings and local resources.
